FRICKE'S FATAL SHOT.

ALLENTON, TEX., June 26.—Reuben Roberts was murdered eight miles from Columbus, and near here, Roberts and his wife had been to camp meeting. He returned drunk and she fled to Mr. Fricke's house for safety.

Roberts then borrowed a pistol from a neighbor and went after her. Fricke refused admittance, when Roberts advanced upon him. Fricke then drew his pistol and fired, the ball striking Roberts in the head. The latter fell and lived only four hours.

A RIDDLED ROBBER.

GAFFNEY CITY, S. C., June 26.—Yesterday William Pears broke into the house of Major William H. Miller during the absence of the family and robbed it.

A crowd of citizens soon started in pursuit, and Pearson was caught up with in the woods and told to surrender, but he beat back his pursuers with a stick and dashed off again. He was ordered to halt and surrender and yelled back "Never!" The party then began firing at him, but he continued his flight and at last fell, riddled with bullets. He died in a few minutes.

FURNITURE FACTORY IN FLAMES.

St. Louis, June 26.—The furniture factory of Eberly & Stockhaus was almost totally destroyed by fire yesterday, with stock and machinery. Loss, $15,000; insurance, $44,000.

DROWNED AT DUBUQUE.

DUBUQUE, IA., June 26.—Frank Seeler, Sr., a laborer, who lives on High street, was drowned in his yard yesterday. The high water surrounded his house, and while he was passing out, he fell from a board.

PROMISCUOUS SHOOTER KILLED.

HOT SPRINGS, ARK., June 26.—Yesterday one B. F. Webb, late a merchant of this city, was in the store of his brother-in-law in Cedar Glades, in Montgomery County. Being drunk, he got into a shooting with a doctor and commenced discharging until quite a crowd of citizens, when his brother-in-law, Hansely, shot and killed him.

SLIPPED FROM THE SHERIFF.

EL DORADO, KA., June 26.—Jack Pearson, the man charged with the murder of Andrew Paulsen, was arrested at Sedan, Chautauque County, on Tuesday, and was started with by the Deputy Sheriff for El Dorado. By some means he obtained possession of the Sheriff's revolver, compelling him to unlock his handcuffs. He took the Sheriff's team at 6 o'clock last evening and lit out, leaving the Sheriff on foot. A large crowd is in pursuit.

COLD BLOODED ASSASSINATION.

LITTLE ROCK, ARK., June 26.—J. J. Civils was called from his bed at his house near Quitman, Van Buren County, the other night by one Neal, and assassinated with a double-barreled shot-gun. It is said that Civils had been the cause of indictments being made against a certain merchant of that town for selling whisky without license, and that the merchant had paid Neal $200 to kill Civils. Neal is now in jail and the merchant has skipped.

NATIONAL ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE STAR.

A FATHER'S AWFUL CRIME.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., June 26.—A French Canadian woman belonging to East Putnam, Conn., came here and charged her husband, Antoni Auger (pronounced Ozer), with a horrible crime. She says that two years ago she discovered that her fifteen-year-old daughter was with child and induced her to confess and learned that her own father had seduced her. A child was born and when six months old Auger poisoned the babe, then mutilated the body and buried it behind an out-house on the premises where the family resides. She claims she can point out the place of burial and produce the decomposed remains.

WASHINGTON.

Stanley Matthews' Show for the Senatorship.

Conference of Cabinet Officers
Last Night.

Special to the Star.

STANLEY MATTHEWS' CHANCES.

WASHINGTON, June 26.—Ex-Senator Stanley Matthews arrived here last night. He thinks Hancock is as strong a candidate as the Democrats could have nominated, but thinks that Garfield can defeat him.

It is whispered that if Garfield should be elected President Matthews will succeed to the Senatorship, according to a bargain made last winter that if he would draw off in favor of Garfield at that time he should have the office at the next election.

OLIVE LOGAN.

Olive Logan, the Cincinnati Enquirer's correspondent, is here.

EX-GOVERNOR YOUNG.

Ex-Governor Tom Young left this city for Cincinnati last evening.

MEETING OF THE CABINET.

National Associated Press to the Star.

WASHINGTON, June 26.—The President leaves to-day for New Haven, Conn.

There was held a special meeting of the Cabinet last evening to consider any business that might be before the different Departments. The principal business transacted was the consideration and signing of a number of recess commissions for various officers. Secretary Evans reported to the Cabinet that he had not yet heard anything from the Captain of the Boston vessel, who is represented to have been fired upon by a Spanish cruiser.

He had the report of the Philadelphia vessel. Mr. Evans said that he could telegraph to the Collector at Boston to send him any information in regard to the Boston vessel he could procure. He also stated that the Spanish Minister here had called upon him and said that neither he nor his Government knew of any such vessel as the Nuncio, which is reported to have done the firing.

Secretary Schurz stated to the Cabinet that there might be more difficulty in feeding Sitting Bull's Indians, who have surrendered in the N. W. river, unless navigation opened early and additional supplies could be transported.

IMPORTS AND EXPORTS.

The excess of the value of the exports of merchandise over imports of merchandise, during the first eleven months of the current fiscal year, amounted to $1,559,770 34. As against an excess of the value of exports over imports during the corresponding months of the preceding fiscal year of $2,584,570 36.

MARQUEZ HAS DISBANDED.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 26.—The following dispatch from the department of Arizona, was received at the War Department yesterday, having been forwarded by Gen. McDowell Captain Rafferty, who was ordered after Marquez under date of June 21st, reports that Marquez has disbanded and dispersed his followers, selling his arms and clothing. Particulars by mail.

GENERAL SHERMAN'S TOUR.

Gen. Sherman accompanied by his Aid, Col. Bacon, leaves here this evening for St. Paul, Minn., to be present at the celebration of the two hundredth anniversary of the discovery of the Falls of St. Anthony by Father Marquette.

From St. Paul the General will go to Pembina and Winnipeg, in the British Province of Manitoba, from thence to Fort Totten, on Devil's Lake, in the northern part of Dakota, returning to Washington via Omaha and Chicago. He will be absent about a month.

SECRETARY OF WAR.

The Secretary of War and Col. Barr left here this morning for St. Paul, Minn. After a short visit there they will go to Fort Leavenworth, Kas.

THE JOLLY OLD SALT.

Secretary Thompson will return to the city to-night from New York. Next Thursday, accompanied by Mrs. Thompson and the Misses Thompson, he will go to his home in Indiana. After a short stay there the party, with the exception of Mrs. Thompson, and probably joined at Terre Haute by Mr. and Mrs. McKee, will proceed to California and the Pacific Coast for a summer tour.

DEPARTURE OF THE PRESIDENT.

The President and Mrs. Hayes left here this morning for New Haven, Conn.

APPROVED BY THE PRESIDENT.

The President this morning appointed John H. Sullivan, of Anderson, Indiana, agent of the Indians of the Moguls Pueblo Agency, Arizona.

A MINISTERIAL CRISIS.

National Associated Press to the Star.

LONDON, June 26.—A dispatch from Melbourne states that a dispute between the majority of the Legislative Assembly Colony of Victoria and the Ministry has reached a crisis, which will probably result in the resignation of the latter. During the present session of the Assembly the minority have pressed their bill providing for certain reform changes in the Constitution of the Colony, which has been bitterly opposed by the leaders of the opposition. In a vote yesterday the bill was defeated by a decided majority against much confusion and the uttering of caustic personalities.

HURRAHING FOR HANCOCK.

Ratification Meetings--Letters of Congratulation--Organization of Clubs, etc.

THE PHILADELPHIA DELEGATION.

National Associated Press to the Star.
PHILADELPHIA, Pa., June 26.—The Philadelphia delegates to Cincinnati arrived in this city last night and were met at the West Philadelphia depot by an immense crowd. The Democratic organizations of the city were on hand and paraded the streets with the delegates and with transparencies bearing the names of Hancock and English. There was great enthusiasm and Chestnut street, down which the procession moved, was lined with people.

PREPARING TO RATIFY.

CHICAGO, June 26.—The Democrats are preparing for a grand ratification this evening in White Stocking Park. A salute of one hundred guns will be fired.

ROCHESTER RATIFIERS.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., June 26.—A big ratification meeting of the Cincinnati nominations was held here last night. A procession headed by bands marched through the streets. There was a grand display of fireworks, and speaking in the Court-house Square by a number of prominent local orators.

AT OGDENSBURG.

OGDENSBURG, N. Y., June 26.—The nomination of Hancock and English was ratified by the Democracy of this city last evening by a mass meeting in the City Hall, after which there was an immense torch-light procession, with three bands of music.

CONGRATULATIONS TO HANCOCK.

NEW YORK, June 26.—General Hancock has received over 1,000 congratulatory dispatches from all parts of the country, and his mail for the past twenty-four hours is far greater than he could find time to read. The General will be officially notified of his nomination on the 12th of July. Among the dispatches received by General Hancock, is the following from Major General Schuyler Hamilton, who served during the Mexican war on the staff of General Scott, and was run through the body by a lance at Mira Flores.

"General Hancock:
"I am a Republican of the blackest stripe, but as an old friend I congratulate the man into whose arms I fell bleeding almost to death after Mira Flores, on the honor he has attained through his spotless reputation. If I may not vote for you, I may congratulate you as your sincere friend, admirer and fellow soldier."
"SCHUYLER HAMILTON."

VETERAN SOLDIER CLUBS.

A large meeting of Veterans of the Mexican war was held last evening for the purpose of organizing campaign clubs in the interest of Hancock and English. Resolutions were adopted inviting all survivors of the Mexican war soldiers and sailors to become members of the club. Hancock and English clubs are rapidly organizing and their banners and flags are being displayed.

SUITS TILDEN TO A T.

NEW YORK, June 26.—A morning paper reports Tilden as saying, he cared nothing for the St. Louis nomination in 1876. He did not want it, and offered it to Seymour. General Hancock was his choice for the Cincinnati nomination above all others, and he forwarded Hancock's interests to the best of his ability. As he (Tilden) cared nothing for the nomination in 1876, so in 1880 he had firmly determined, before the Convention met, that he would not be a candidate.

GRANT STICKS TO GARFIELD.

CHICAGO, June 26.—Galena and Dubuque special state that Gen. Grant positively denies having declared in favor of Hancock, or that he would vote for him in preference to Garfield, being released from obligation to the Republican party after the action of the Chicago Convention.

The dispatch to that effect was shown General Grant, and he denounced the statements as malicious fabrications without the least foundation in truth. He will give a hearty support to the Republican ticket. The General made the same statement to his friend, Mr. Thompson, of Dubuque. General Grant and family leave for Colorado early next week.

TAMMANY AT HOME.

NEW YORK, June 26.—The Executive Committee of the Democratic Union, and a good sized crowd representing the various assembly district organizations were on hand this morning to welcome the return of the Tammany braves. As the immense special train steamed into the Grand Central depot at 9:12 rousing cheers went up from those gathered to welcome the delegates.

The band which accompanied the delegation played "Home Sweet Home" as the braves stepped from the cars, and the cheers of the crowd were responded to by the delegation, who, after striking the State line on the way home were saluted at almost every village and hamlet by the firing of guns.

All the delegates seemed jubilant and enthusiastic over the result of their pilgrimage and freely claimed to have been the means of vanquishing their old foes, Tilden and Robinson. They expressed their determination to forget past differences and work in harmony with their recent opponents.

Chicago's Clasp of Thunder.

National Associated Press to the Star.

CHICAGO, June 26.—At an adjourned meeting of the Board of Education last night Duane Doty, who has been Superintendent of the Schools a number of years, was ousted, and George P. Howland, Principal of the Central High School, appointed in his place. This action comes like a clap of thunder in a clear sky to the people of Chicago to-day, no one apparently outside of the Board membership being aware that Mr. Doty was to be discharged, or of the reasons therefor.

Sponsoring for a Medal.

National Associated Press to the Star.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., June 26.—The prize speaking for the DeForest Medal at Yale took place at Baltic Chapel yesterday afternoon. There were six contestants and the prize was awarded to John Arnold Amundson, of Rochester, Minn., whose subject was "Human Happiness as Affected by the Progress of Learning."

GOTHAM GLINTS.

Fruit of the Cherry Tree--House Painters' Strike--Seaside Sanitarium, Etc., Etc.

HOUSE-PAINTERS' STRIKE.

Special to the Star.

NEW YORK, June 26.—The house-painters of the City have been on a strike for several weeks, the majority of the employers having reduced the pay of their workmen from $3 to $2 50 per day. The employers now refuse to work for less than $3. There are in round numbers, it is estimated by the trade, 3,000 skilled journeymen painters in the city.

FATHER KILLEEN'S CRUSADE.

Rev. Thomas Killeen, pastor of the Catholic Church at Bergen Point, was returning home from evening service Sunday, when he heard voices in Dillon's saloon. Entering by a back door the priest found several men and the proprietor drinking at the bar.

At sight of the priest they all fled, leaving him in entire possession of the place. With his umbrella Father Killeen smashed all the bottles and decanters in the place, and spilled all the liquor he could find. The next day he made complaint against Dillon and had him arrested. Dillon has been fined $20.

SUICIDE OF A BROKER.

E. S. Mendels, of the firm of E. S. Mendels, Jr., & Co., bankers and brokers, at No. 778 Broad street, Newark, and at No. 15 Wall street, New York, committed suicide yesterday morning at his residence, in Newark, by shooting himself.

The Franklin Iron Company's furnace at Franklin Furnace, Sussex County, is to be blown out immediately. This is one of the largest furnaces in the United States, its capacity being about six hundred tons per week.

THE WHEAT HARVEST.

Private letters received by members of the Produce Exchange speak in most glowing terms relative to the wheat harvest, which is said to be the largest and finest ever witnessed in the country.

INDIANAPOLIS.

DENTAL DOCTORS--THE WILLIAMS MURDER.

Special to the Star.

INDIANAPOLIS, June 26.—The twenty-first annual session of the Indiana State Dental Association will be held in this city, beginning at ten a. m. next Tuesday and lasting two days, in the rooms of the Indiana Dental College in Thorpe's Block.

Coroner Wishard has returned the following verdict as the result of his official investigation in the Williams case:

"I do hereby find that the said deceased came to his death by being shot in the back by Alfonso McClure, while running, with a shotgun, producing instant death, one of the balls or shot having severed the spinal cord. I further find that John Clark and Robert Sample were accessory to the crime. The aforesaid homicide was committed in Lawrence Township, Marion County, Indiana."

WILLIAM H. WHEAT, Coroner.

Mrs. Williams, the second victim of the Lawrence tragedy, died at the City Hospital yesterday morning at 11 o'clock.

Additional Courts.

COMMON PLEAS.

Before Judge Burnett--John Link, who is charged with having committed a burglary in Milwaukee, was brought up before Judge Burnett this morning for the purpose of ascertaining what he had to say why he should not be sent back to Milwaukee to answer the charge. The Sheriff of Milwaukee was here with a requisition from the Governor of Wisconsin on the Governor of Ohio. The defendant admits that he formerly lived in Milwaukee, but he claims that he never committed the burglary. In progress.

The testimony in the Bowles case commenced yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. Caroline Beckman, the prosecuting witness, testified that Mr. Bowles, the defendant, sold her a bond of $850, for which she gave him a check on the First National Bank.

Mr. Oppenheimer, the County Auditor, testified that the bond was formerly a bond of $90; that a figure 8 was put before the $90, thus making it appear that the bond was worth $850. He said that he was acquainted with Bowles' handwriting, and said that the figure 8 and the words eight hundred written on the forged bond were in the handwriting of Samuel P. Bowles.

At the time of adjournment Mr. Cappellet was still on the stand.

PROBATE.
